

Health Academy Section

The Health Academy Section is for public relations and communication professionals who serve the health care industry. With nearly 700 members, this specialized community provides access to the latest best practices and industry trends.

Throughout the year, the Health Academy offers members opportunities for education, networking and discussion on key issues facing health care PR professionals. The annual conference always features speakers of national interest and reports on emerging trends in health care PR.

Health Academy Section

The Health Academy Section is for public relations and communication professionals who serve the health care industry. With nearly 700 members, this specialized community provides access to the latest best practices and industry trends.

Throughout the year, the Health Academy offers members opportunities for education, networking and discussion on key issues facing health care PR professionals. The annual conference always features speakers of national interest and reports on emerging trends in health care PR.