- Provide special programming designed for undergraduate and graduate communications students.

Your organization will enjoy additional exposure in the companion virtual ICON 2021 experience launching Oct. 5 and delivering education, thought leadership, and “can’t-miss” ICONversations with thought leaders, industry leaders and rising stars in the communications practice. Virtual ICON 2021 will provide content through Dec. 31, 2021, expanding your time in front of the attendees.

Engage with CCOs, CMOs, agency owners, independent practitioners, communications department executives and staff. Elevate your brand and increase awareness of your products and services.
